President's Message!

Well we we are into the home stretch with only a few months left to this year. Season is almost here and the weather is changing as it treats us to the cool evening breezes we love so much. The past quarter had its sad moments for me as I lost my beloved Daddy. I truly appreciate all the kindness that was bestowed upon me by my WCR family. It is truly one of the reasons I love this organization so much.

The next quarter promises to be busy with upcoming events. October 14th is our Awards and Scholarship luncheon. We will also hold nominations and elections for the 2011 line officers. Our November luncheon is a joint venture with the Cape Coral Association of Realtors. We will have a panel of industry leaders to share their knowledge and insights. We will also have a little "Christmas in November" as we will have decorated table top Christmas trees to auction off. December is our annual Holiday Auction and Installation of Officers. This luncheon is always great fun.

We appreciate your continued support and encourage you to get the most out of your membership by getting involved. We look forward to seeing you...

My husband Paul and I moved to Cape Coral 6 years ago with Charlie welcoming us to Florida but in spite of that, we wish we had moved here years ago. Both of us were born and raised on the south side of Chicago, attended Bradley University and ended up in different ends of real estate. We lived in Germantown, Wisconsin for 35 years before moving to paradise and raised two children. Kelley lives in Fishers Indiana with her husband Jeff and two boys, Brock 7 and Brandt 6. Ryan lives in Knoxville with his wife Jen and their two girls, Samantha 9, Alexa 7 and James 4. Sure wish I could see all of them more often but we take time off to visit as much as we can - in the summer of course. When I'm not working I love to golf, kayak, swim, volunteer and enjoy all the fun places and things to do in SW Florida. I've been blessed to have found

Realtor Spotlight

Danielle St. Onge
Sandals Realty of Fort Myers

Danielle is a native of North East Connecticut and decided to head for warmer weather 7 years ago. (We chose Cape Coral by throwing a dart at a map. It landed here and we moved 6 weeks later, no friends, no family, no knowledge of the area just knew we had to get away from the snow. We moved in October and believe it or not, it snowed the day we left! Now 7 years later we have migrated all our family down and more is still on the way.

Danielle has been in Real Estate for 4+ years, it is not only a career but a passion for her. She is a top producer in her office and strives to keep up with the ever changing market. She has her Accredited Buyers Representative designation, Certified Distress Property Expert, Short Sale and Foreclosure Resource, and has recently achieved her Brokers license. " I love to work with out of state and first time home buyers. To be able to guide them thru the process, show them how amazing our area and see them get excited about living here in Paradise makes it all worth while!"

Family: Wonderful and supportive husband Matt and an awesome daughter Savannah, and our two dogs Sunny and Charlie!

Hobbies/Interests: We love to do things with our friends and family on any given weekend you will find us camping (yes we do tent camp in Florida!) 4 wheeling, fishing, at the beach or having a cook out and playing board games.

Mentor: My mom, she is just an amazing woman, giving most of her self to those she loves and always able to balance what ever life sends her way with grace and ease.

Last Book read: some mindless romance novel....which took me 3 weeks!

A Friendly Reminder!

The deadline to submit for education reimbursement is today. Specific information and reimbursement form is on the website.

The Benefits of Women's Council of Realtors

When a member asks someone to become a member of Women's Council of Realtors, the most common response is "I'm too busy", followed by "I'm trying to build my business and don't have time", followed by "I'm a guy so why would I join Women's Council".

"Christmas in November" is going to be held at our November joint luncheon with the CCAR. We will be auctioning off decorated table top Christmas trees. This will be our mini "fun raiser" in place of Art on the Green this year. Obviously we are looking for donations of decorated Christmas trees so we are throwing the "Christmas Tree Challenge" out there. Let's see how many trees we can get donated by challenging each other to see who can have the tree that brings in the most money. I am going to start off by throwing out the first challenge... WCR challenges CCAR, Nancy do you accept the Challenge? Since I am on a roll, I am throwing out the second challenge from one of my other hats and Towns Title challenges all the other title companies. Lauren Harmon of Security Title donated a beautiful tree last year that brought in the most money at Art on the Green so she is going to be tough to beat if she accepts the challenge this year, Lauren are you in? I think you get the idea... so put your challenge out there. Each category winner (Home Inspections, Bankers, Mortgage Brokers, etc) will get a special prize. Have fun and be creative.

WCR sent our August "Support Our Troops Box" to Corporal Patrick Tennyson, Communication Technician in Afghanistan. Patrick goes out to all their battalions to fix communication problems and upgrade their Blue Force Trackers and a whole lot of other fixes that I have no idea what he is talking about.

These men are amazing. Put their lives on the line to protect our freedom and still can find something to joke about, even though Patrick just got the news that he won't be home for Christmas, it has been changed to January. Patrick mentions one of his buddies, who is a dog handler attached to the police force, got shot in the leg and Patrick said "his buddy is now living it up in Camp Dwyer with Army females taking care of him"...

as successful business professionals, women will effect positive change in the profession and in the broader community.
