President's Message!

Happy New Year everyone!

How exciting for me to serve as your Chapter President again. This is a very special year for our Chapter and especially for our long time member Robin McKeever. On January 20th in Orlando Robin will be installed as the Women's Council of Realtors Florida State President. I am personally proud to call Robin a friend. She and Linda Biondi are the two people who "gently" encouraged me to see the true potentials of leadership and involvement with our Chapter. Women's Council of Realtors is the epitome of professionalism in real estate and this organization can and will train you to succeed in your business and your personal life. The key to this success is involvement. As we start the New Year think about what strengths and talents you can share. The amount of involvement is up to you. Just some examples would be - you can greet members as they arrive at our luncheon meetings, you can serve on a committee and help with planning, finance or special events or you can work behind the scenes on a calling committee. All involvement will be rewarded with friendships, new business relationships and a true feeling of belonging. When you are "involved" with WCR you are part of a family who is there for you in thick and thin. Just ask some of our "seasoned" members and you will hear over and over stories of how when people needed help their WCR family was there for them. You will get what you give....become involved on some level and I know you will not regret it.
Congratulations, Robin we are very proud of you.

Also for any of you who would like to attend Robin McKeever's installation and formal banquet, it will be held at 6:30 P.M. on January 20th at Renaissance Hotel - Sea World, Orlando. Banquet tickets are $79 and will be Calling all "Fun Raisers"!!

The Ways & Means Committee is recruiting committee members. We have several "fun raising" events planned for this year and would love to have you be a "fun raiser." Time commitments can be as little as one hour or as much you can. Every little bit helps and we really do have a lot of fun. Call or email us for more information. Thank you for your continued support to Women's Council.
