

CAPE BRIEFS

Women Realtors take state prize

The Cape Coral Chapter of Women's Council of Realtors was awarded the 2011 Chapter of the Year award from the state of Florida at the Florida Realtors/WCR Convention in Orlando.

The award is given to one out of the 39 WCR chapters in the state.

It is based on excellence in leadership, professionalism, vision and membership goals.

The award was accepted by Donna Stout, Cape Coral Chapter president; Danielle St. Onge, president-elect; Michele Schafer, past president; and Robin McKeever, state president and Cape Coral Chapter member.

WCR is a network of successful Realtors empowering women to exercise their potential as entrepreneurs and industry leaders.

Storm evacuation zone app available

Lee County Emergency Management's free LeeEvac app provides residents and visitors to Lee County the ability to find their Hurricane Evacuation Zone on their iPhones, iPads and iPod Touches before a hurricane threatens the Gulf Coast.

The LeeEvac app will also allow users to see when and where evacuations are being ordered in real-time. "The ability to effectively inform people who may be required to evacuate is a critical part of protecting our community. The LeeEvac app uses familiar technology to provide personalized information to help people protect themselves and their loved ones," said Gerald Campbell, planning

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS-PRESS

The Cape Coral Chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors recently won the 2011 Chapter of the Year award. From left, Susan Alcorn, 2010 award recipient from the Ocala/Marion Chapter; Robin McKeever, state president and Cape Coral chapter member; Danielle St. Onge, president-elect; Donna Stout, Cape Coral Chapter president; and Michele Schafer, past president.